

SBSA 2011 Reunion

May 4 – 8, 2011 ~ San Antonio, Texas

May 2011 will find us plying the tranquil waters of the San Antonio River! Freshen up your Fiesta hats boys and girls because y'all are in for a Taste of Texicana!

Team SATX has been hard at work in planning a memorable reunion. Randy "Gunner" Foster recommends that you polish up them boots and prepare yourselves for some two-step boot scooting, if you don't know how, he'll teach ya! Warren Jenny will be available to share some genuine Texas hospitality!

For information on what to do, where to eat, shop and explore, visit: www.visitsanantonio.com/meeting. Because of all there is to see and do – the Alamo, the Riverwalk, PCF Crew or Group Dinners on a River Boat, Romantic Carriage Rides, Spanish Missions, El Mercado (Mexican Market Square), La Villita, Tower of the Americas, Institute of Texan Cultures, the Buckhorn Saloon and Museum, Wax Museum, Ripley's Believe It or Not, Mexican Restaurants, BBQ, Italian, German Restaurants, and more....we encourage you to come early – check-in at the beautiful Crowne Plaza Riverwalk Hotel on Wednesday, May 4th and make the most of your trip. There will be a FREE Welcome Fiesta Reception for early arrivals, late Wednesday afternoon!!

In addition to all there is to see and do in San Antonio, we are offering two exciting tours, Tour "A" will take place on Thursday, May 5th – Venture down the road a piece to the Rio Cibolo Ranch for a little bit of Texas wrangling and a whole lot of fun, including a BBQ plate dinner and some line dancing, maybe even a campfire cowboy sing-a-long. Tentative departure will be at 5 PM with return at O-Dark Thirty.

Tour "B" is scheduled for Friday, May 6th – Our destination is the birthplace of Fleet Admiral Chester William Nimitz, Fredericksburg, Texas, located in the beautiful Texas Hill Country. We will tour the National Museum of the Pacific War (Nimitz Museum). Departure is tentatively scheduled for 9 AM. Kicking off this grand Road Trip will be a Vaquero Tailgate Taco Breakfast. Aside from the fabulous things that this National Museum has to offer, Fredericksburg boasts the "Widest Main Street in Texas!" With 200 shops and stores, Fredericksburg offers a boundless array of the fresh, the quaint, the one-of-a-kind that you won't find any place else. Antiques and art. Handiwork and home decor. Gifts, furniture, and specialty foods and wines. Texana, books, collectibles. Even top fashion! In Fredericksburg, shopping is always beyond your expectations!

Start making plans NOW! The "Special" reduced room rate of $107 will be sure to fill up the rooms fast....don't be left out. The "Special" room rate will be available for the reunion dates of 4 May through 7 May 2011 and, ONLY to those who make hotel room reservations and send in their reunion registration forms no later than April 4, 2011. Remember, a credit card is all that you need now to reserve a room. Your card will NOT be charged a dime until you check out.....Don't Delay – Act NOW!!!
